Lucie comes to the MSE Group with an inordinate amount of experience in the IT and technical industries. Whether multi-tasking in a start-up company or managing strategic accounts for multi-national corporations, Lucie grasps customer challenges quickly and is tenacious in finding bespoke solutions to resolve them. Her professional commitment makes her the 'go-to' for customers now seeking new product solutions for simulation training and diagnostics in healthcare.

When she's not 'on-it', Lucie has many interests. She's a fanatic for home improvements, which she tempers with a healthy dose of yoga, meditation and Thai Boxing.
